Manufactured Housing Communities of Oregon 2020 Annual Conference October 26-27, 2020

New Normal? New Opportunities!

As we are all aware, COVID-19 has brought many changes to our nation. MHCO will be hosting this year's Annual Conference via Zoom which makes a traditional exhibiting style difficult. Instead MHCO is offering an extensive advertising package for a three month period to businesses in the industry. The registration fee will also cover one person's attendance in all Annual Conference Zoom sessions.

Advertising Included:

Development of an Ad to be showcased in:

- Three months of exposure on the MHCO website
- Inclusion on a rotating basis in all MHCO Emma email blasts regarding the Annual Conference
- Inclusion on a rotating basis in a PowerPoint presentation that will be shown for the duration of every break period of the Annual Conference

At a Glance

- Excellent attendance with over 300 attendees.
- Showcase your products/services.
- Position your company as a leader in the manufactured housing industry.
- Connect with community owners and managers; understanding their wants and needs

Why Exhibit?

Manufactured Housing Communities of Oregon (MHCO) has been sponsoring an annual conference for over 20 years. It is a great opportunity for any business seeking to maintain or expand connections within the manufactured home community industry. You will be able to receive great exposure to community owners and managers from across Oregon.

This is the largest conference for MHC owners and managers in the Pacific Northwest – Don't Miss Out!

Take advantage of the opportunity and send in your registration today.
